

HYMNS AND SPIRITUAL SONGS.

These Hymns and Spiritual Songs in the new edition of the hymn book, published by the Rev. J. W. Aldrich, D.D., are the result of a long and careful study of the best hymnology of the world.

A GEOLOGICAL BLUNDER.

There is in Nature an article by a French geologist, M. de la Roche, on the subject of the Geological Survey of the Alps, which is a most interesting and valuable contribution to our knowledge of the geology of that region.

"IS CHRISTIANITY PLAYED OUT?"

The Editor of the Daily Chronicle writes: "I have just published the statement of Mr. H. H. Arnold, the author of 'Is Christianity Played Out?'"

THE DEATH DUTIES AS A MEANS OF TAXATION.

Mr. Sydney Boston and Mr. George S. Barnes discuss the subject in their recent work, 'The Death Duties as a Means of Taxation.'

AN OLD PARLIAMENTARY HAND.

In the first number of a new volume of the 'House of Commons' by Mr. H. W. Lyell, the late Mr. Lyell's own account of his career in the House of Commons is given.

REVENUE COURT OF APPEALS.

THE REVENUE COURT OF APPEALS has given judgment in the case of the Commissioners of the General Land Office against the Earl of Devon.

LAW NOTICES-THE DAY.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

There is a very interesting article in the 'Daily Chronicle' on the subject of the 'Geological Survey of the Alps,' which is a most valuable contribution to our knowledge of the geology of that region.

The Editor of the 'Daily Chronicle' writes: 'I have just published the statement of Mr. H. H. Arnold, the author of 'Is Christianity Played Out?'"

Mr. Sydney Boston and Mr. George S. Barnes discuss the subject in their recent work, 'The Death Duties as a Means of Taxation.'

In the first number of a new volume of the 'House of Commons' by Mr. H. W. Lyell, the late Mr. Lyell's own account of his career in the House of Commons is given.

THE REVENUE COURT OF APPEALS has given judgment in the case of the Commissioners of the General Land Office against the Earl of Devon.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

There is a very interesting article in the 'Daily Chronicle' on the subject of the 'Geological Survey of the Alps,' which is a most valuable contribution to our knowledge of the geology of that region.

The Editor of the 'Daily Chronicle' writes: 'I have just published the statement of Mr. H. H. Arnold, the author of 'Is Christianity Played Out?'"

Mr. Sydney Boston and Mr. George S. Barnes discuss the subject in their recent work, 'The Death Duties as a Means of Taxation.'

In the first number of a new volume of the 'House of Commons' by Mr. H. W. Lyell, the late Mr. Lyell's own account of his career in the House of Commons is given.

THE REVENUE COURT OF APPEALS has given judgment in the case of the Commissioners of the General Land Office against the Earl of Devon.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

There is a very interesting article in the 'Daily Chronicle' on the subject of the 'Geological Survey of the Alps,' which is a most valuable contribution to our knowledge of the geology of that region.

The Editor of the 'Daily Chronicle' writes: 'I have just published the statement of Mr. H. H. Arnold, the author of 'Is Christianity Played Out?'"

Mr. Sydney Boston and Mr. George S. Barnes discuss the subject in their recent work, 'The Death Duties as a Means of Taxation.'

In the first number of a new volume of the 'House of Commons' by Mr. H. W. Lyell, the late Mr. Lyell's own account of his career in the House of Commons is given.

THE REVENUE COURT OF APPEALS has given judgment in the case of the Commissioners of the General Land Office against the Earl of Devon.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

There is a very interesting article in the 'Daily Chronicle' on the subject of the 'Geological Survey of the Alps,' which is a most valuable contribution to our knowledge of the geology of that region.

The Editor of the 'Daily Chronicle' writes: 'I have just published the statement of Mr. H. H. Arnold, the author of 'Is Christianity Played Out?'"

Mr. Sydney Boston and Mr. George S. Barnes discuss the subject in their recent work, 'The Death Duties as a Means of Taxation.'

In the first number of a new volume of the 'House of Commons' by Mr. H. W. Lyell, the late Mr. Lyell's own account of his career in the House of Commons is given.

THE REVENUE COURT OF APPEALS has given judgment in the case of the Commissioners of the General Land Office against the Earl of Devon.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

There is a very interesting article in the 'Daily Chronicle' on the subject of the 'Geological Survey of the Alps,' which is a most valuable contribution to our knowledge of the geology of that region.

The Editor of the 'Daily Chronicle' writes: 'I have just published the statement of Mr. H. H. Arnold, the author of 'Is Christianity Played Out?'"

Mr. Sydney Boston and Mr. George S. Barnes discuss the subject in their recent work, 'The Death Duties as a Means of Taxation.'

In the first number of a new volume of the 'House of Commons' by Mr. H. W. Lyell, the late Mr. Lyell's own account of his career in the House of Commons is given.

THE REVENUE COURT OF APPEALS has given judgment in the case of the Commissioners of the General Land Office against the Earl of Devon.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.

NOTICE is hereby given that the will of the late Mr. John Smith, deceased, has been proved to the satisfaction of the Court.