Alma Mater

Words by JOHN R. BRIERLEY, '10

Music by WILLIAM G. HAMMOND

Polytechnic, Alma Mater!
Name that fills our hearts with pride;
We are toiling onward, upward,
With you for our help and guide.
You are Queen, and with your scepter
O'er each loyal heart hold sway,
While we strive to win new honors
For the Blue and Gray.

And when college days are over
And we've said our last farewell,
Then we try to probe the future;
What it holds no one can tell.
When into the world we wander
Each upon his chosen way,
May we ever prove a credit
To the Blue and Gray.

CHORUS:

Sons of Poly raise your voices
In a joyous song,
Boast her triumphs, sing her praises,
Sing them loud and long.
Freshmen come and Seniors leave her,
Yet she ever firm will stay.
Hail! All hail, O Polytechnic,
And the Blue and Gray.

The audience will kindly stand and join in the singing.
