

LEONORA CORBETT : Who plays a leading part in Rodney Ackland's new play, "After October," presented at the Arts Theatre on February 20th, preliminary to a West End production. This is her fifth Rodney Ackland play. She has just completed the film version of "Living Dangerously," in which she plays opposite Otto Kruger

JOAN GARDNER : The London Films star who is among the loveliest of young English actresses working on films in this country. She has already made "The Private Life of Don Juan" and "The Scarlet Pimpernel" for London Films, among other pictures, and will be seen in London within the next few weeks in "The Man Who Could Work Miracles"

MARTA LABARR : Who is appearing in "At the Silver Swan"—the new Alice Delysia play which had its first night at the Palace last Wednesday

On right : AT THE CAPITOL : Fay Wray as she appears in "When Knights Were Bold," the film version of the famous play, with Jack Buchanan in the lead, which began a run at the London Pavilion on Wednesday

IN THE NEW SHOWS

Fay Wray at the London Pavilion—Marta Labarr at the Palace